PARADE OVER TOWN STREETS

Order of Independent Americans in Annual Session here Held Parade over Streets of Gettysburg Tuesday Afternoon.

With five bands, two drum corps and about five hundred men in line the annual convention parade of the Order of Independent Americans was held in Gettysburg on Tuesday afternoon and witnessed by a large crowd as it proceeded over the various streets of the town. The column was in five divisions, each led by its own marshal.

Chief Marshal Wm. McG. Tawney led the parade with his four aides and following them came the Citizens' Band. The local musicians wore the parade uniforms which they secured for their Lebanon trip and made a fine appearance while they fully lived up to their reputation as a musical organization, contributing freely to the enjoyment of the parade.

Headed by a drum corps several companies of guards, some in dress and others in khaki uniform, followed the Gettysburg band and made a very good appearance. All carried arms and for a time the column assumed quite a martial appearance. These guards have been camping at the east end of town since their arrival here on Monday. The officers of the organization followed in three carriages.

As the Eighth Regiment band passed the judges in the square they struck up in lively time "Everybody's Doing It." The band wore their khaki uniforms which they use in the service as a National Guard organization and were well received all along the line. Following them were the Carlisle Council garbed in white and surrounding a huge United States flag. This council, by the way, was awarded the first prize of $30 for the best marching in the parade.

The Harrisburg Drum Corps led the delegations from the towns in that vicinity and then came the Shillington Band followed by Shillington Council with the largest number of men in the parade, for which they received the prize of $20. Dallastown's fine band and the Dallastown council, also largely represented, came next in line and then the Citizens' Band of Pottstown. This last organization wore gay uniforms, red coats and caps white trousers and high black leggings. They were followed by the Pottstown Council which was conspicuous with its members carrying red and green umbrellas.

Battlefield Council 717 led by the degree team in uniform brought up the rear of the column. The Gettysburg boys were vigorously applauded all along the line of march and made a good appearance. The judges, W. I. Ziegler, John D. Keith and Herman Mertz gave them honorable mention for appearance.

The route of the parade as mapped out by the committee reached almost all the principal sections of town and everyone had a chance to see it. The line of march crossed Centre Square three times and before going through the third time a slight pause was taken to arrange for the review. The officers of the organization took their position between the judges and Marshal Tawney and his aides. The parade then passed in review much after the manner of a military parade, the bands remaining in front of the reviewing party until the commands to which they were attached had passed, and then falling in after them.

A feature of the parade was a large tourist wagon filled with women here for the convention. They waved their flags vigorously to applauding spectators along the line of march and apparently enjoyed the event hugely. The visitors to the town for the day were numerous and were brought in a number of special trains.

Before leaving in the evening Pottstown, Dallastown and Eighth regiment bands gave concerts which were enjoyed by the visitors and many people of town.

BUSINESS SESSIONS

Reports heard at the business sessions of the convention showed a total membership in Pennsylvania of 40,319 in 255 councils. The order has had six new councils established during the past year and there has been an increase of over 1000 in membership. The finances have shown a proportionate increase in prosperity. The order is now represented in three states besides Pennsylvania—Ohio, New Jersey and New York.

It was decided to increase the orphans' tax from ten to fifteen cents and the per capita tax from 15 to 18 cents.

Lancaster was chosen over Pottstown and Phoenixville for next year's convention and the following officers were elected, state councilor, John F. Lowers, Braddock; state vice councilor, Joseph McClellan, Hazleton; state council secretary, William A. Pike, Philadelphia; state council treasurer, Charles A. Hendrickson, Pittsburgh.

ARRANGE TO USE COLLEGE GROUNDS

Colonel Lewis E. Beidler, Field Secretary of Battle Anniversary Commission, Confers with President Granville.

Colonel Lewis E. Beidler, field secretary of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg Commission, was in town this morning to confer with President Granville concerning the use of the buildings on the college campus for the accommodation of the president of the United States, the various governors, members of the diplomatic corps and other distinguished guests who will be here for the battle anniversary celebration in July 1913.

The arrangements were in a large degree perfected by Colonel Beidler and Dr. Granville and practically every college building will be put to use as well as the two large buildings at the Theological Seminary. The War Department will have entire charge of affairs and will rent the grounds and buildings for one month, covering the time of preparation and a week or more after the close of the celebration so that ample opportunity will be given for cleaning up.

It is proposed to establish a complete commissary department on the grounds though it will not be in the nature of an army commissary. The entire body of distinguished guests will have their quarters and will have their meals served at the two institutions. The preparations for these alone will be a tremendous task and will require several weeks' time so that the work will likely be taken up immediately upon the close of college next June.

As noted above, the War Department is to have the affair in charge and will establish a patrol about the grounds. The guests are expected to be here for a period of four days but protection will have to be given for a considerably longer period.

During his stay here Colonel Beidler expressed himself as very much pleased with the outlook for the success of the anniversary celebration. The plans as previously announced will be carried out. There seems to be no doubt about the state making the necessary appropriations to insure the success of the anniversary and Colonel Beidler is hard at work every day arranging the thousand and one details which must be taken care of in completing arrangements.

IMPORTANT CASE FINALLY DECIDED

Supreme Court Refuses Appeal in Hershey-Delone Case. Many Real Estate Titles in Adams County Affected.

By the refusal of the Supreme Court to grant an appeal from the Superior Court in the case of Catharine Hershey vs. Charles J. Delone an important case, which affects many titles in Adams county and elsewhere throughout the state, is finally decided. Earlier in the summer the Superior Court had affirmed Judge Swope.

Judge Swope ruled last year that one who purchases land, on which a widow's dower has been charged in partition proceedings, is personally liable for the annual interest although the land itself becomes worthless. This is the first opinion of the sort rendered on this question in Pennsylvania, and is of unusual importance to the owners of real estate and to the bar generally, affecting as it does the title to many lands throughout the state of Pennsylvania.

In the case tried before Judge Swope the action was brought by Catharine Hershey, of Hanover, a widow, against Charles J. Delone, to recover accrued dower interest due her amounting to approximately $1000. The land on which dower interest was charged was practically worthless because the mill buildings on it had been destroyed by fire and had not been replaced by Mr. Delone and the land could not be sold for enough to pay the annual dower interest due the widow.

Judge Swope held that Mrs. Hershey could proceed against other property owned by Delone and Mr. Delone contended, in the Superior Court, that only the mill property could be seized in execution, which contention was overruled by the Superior Court.

RUNAWAY

There was considerable excitement in McSherrystown about 4 p. m. Monday when the four horse team of John Grove, of Littlestown, became frightened and ran away. The horses and wagon were standing in front of Conrad Brothers' meat market, when an automobile passed and frightened the lead horses. They started to run down the street, throwing the left wheel horse and dragging it as far as the National Hotel, about a block distant. The horses stopped there and the injured animal was gotten up. The horse was considerably cut about the side and legs. After getting things fixed up and dressing the injuries of the animal, Mr. Grove was able to continue home. The touring party stopped and assisted Mr. Grove.

PUSHING WORK ON THE STATE ROADS

Hurrying Work along before Cold Weather Halts Operations. More Time Made between New Oxford and Gettysburg.

The work of repairs and construction of roads in Adams county under supervision of E. S. Frey, assistant engineer of the state highway department, is progressing as a number of the contracts will be awarded before cold weather sets in. Owing to the lateness of the season only that work which is necessary will be done, so that the roads will be in good condition for the winter.

Under the direction of Engineer Frey the work upon the road in Straban township, leading from Hunters-town, started last month, is fast nearing completion. The repair work is being done by state aid and the stretch of road covers 11,880 feet or a little over two miles.

The work upon the state road under construction between New Oxford and Gettysburg is proceeding more rapidly with the gradual increase of the force of workmen. About 50 men are now engaged on the contract. The work is expected to be continued up until the first or the middle of December, when it will be stopped for a short time during the very cold weather, to be continued in the early spring. John H. Dobbling has the contract.

This is the old York and Gettysburg turnpike, which was condemned some years ago. The construction of this road was completed during 1819, and required several years to finish. After the building of the railroad from Hanover to Gettysburg, in 1859, the turnpike did not pay the stockholders, who neglected it, and later it was condemned.

Numerous repairs have been made to other roads in the county and conditions generally have been much improved.

BACKER OF RACE BILL A SUICIDE

George C. Morrison Kills Himself in Baltimore.

WILSON'S STATE MANAGER

Was Involved in Charges That Legislation Has Been Changed After Governor Signed Bill.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 18.—George C. Morrison, a leader in Democratic political circles, and Maryland campaign manager for Governor Woodrow Wilson, president of the Title Guarantee and Trust company and one of the leading financial figures of Baltimore, was found dead in a private room of the Baltimore Athletic club, a suicide.

The police say that when his body was discovered a gas tube connected with a flowing jet was in his mouth. He was about forty years old and was married.

The suicide of Mr. Morrison comes within a few days of accusations made by Governor Goldsborough that Mr. Morrison and other leaders of the business and social life of Harford county, where he had a handsome home, had made misrepresentations concerning the Harford county racing bill, by which has paved the way for the recently completed Havre de Grace race track.

In a public statement Governor Goldsborough had said that had he not been deceived by the statements of Mr. Morrison and other men he would not have signed the bill which allows racing in Harford county.

Mr. Morrison was prominently interested in horse racing. He left a note explaining his act, which the coroner took possession of, and while refusing to make all of it public at this time, he said the dead man referred to the newspaper publicity given to his interest in the race track at Havre de Grace, as one of the reasons for his action.

The portion of the note given out said: "I am in trouble only to my God. He knows whether it is just for the self-sacrificing work of years to be set at naught by the onslaughts of a yellow newspaper, against which there is no defense."

Following up the charges by Governor Goldsborough, the grand jury of Harford county has begun an investigation of the Havre de Grace track and it was intended to summon Mr. Morrison and several other whose names had been mentioned in connection with the matter.

Mr. Morrison went to his room in the athletic club house, telling club attendants that he intended to do some work there. That was the last time he was seen alive.

TRACK RUN FOR GAMBLING

Grand Jury Condemns Conduct of Affairs at Havre de Grace.

Belair, Md., Sept. 18.—Characterizing the directorate of the race track at Havre de Grace as "a clean collar on a dirty shirt," and asserting that the track is maintained for gambling in its most damaging and dangerous form, the grand jury for Harford county gave its report to the court at Belair.

The report followed two days of testimony taking, in which directors of the track—which is run under the name of the Harford Agricultural and Breeding association—and many others were called to tell just how the track is conducted and the manner in which it was promoted.

The grand jury recommended that detectives be employed by the county to keep their eyes on the course and to see that the laws are strictly enforced.

In its report the grand jury says: "That the entire management and conduct of the racing, pool selling and other business of this association appears to be in the hands of one Ed ward Burke, of New York, a man who has made horse racing his vocation for fifteen years, and who was first secured for this position by one Timothy O'Leary, of Philadelphia, and the New York Jockey club."

Further, the jury admits its helplessness in the matter and recommends that the only thing to be done is to have the act repealed at the next legislature. As the general assembly does not meet until 1914 the track will be in operation for another year, and nothing is likely to be done in the meantime.

COMES INTO $25,000,000

Alfred Vanderbilt's Birthday Terminates Period of Trust.

New York, Sept. 18.—As the date rapidly approaches when Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt is to come into absolute possession of his entire fortune, he lingers with his bride, the former Mrs. Smith Hollins McKim, in a house boat on the Thames river, England, where they are expecting a visit from the stork.

This event is due so soon, according to the reports, that Mrs. Vanderbilt will be able to return to this country with her husband to celebrate his thirty-fifth birthday, which terminates the period of trust in which half his patrimony was held.

The will of Cornelius Vanderbilt bore the date of June 18, 1896. The seventeenth provision created the trust in favor of Alfred, assigning to the executors the duty of holding, investing and reinvesting the remainder of the estate and collecting rents, incomes and profits for the use of Alfred Vanderbilt until he became thirty years old. At that age, on Oct. 20, 1907, he received one-half of the estate, which amounted to $25,000,000. This fall he will receive the other half.

New York, Sept. 18.—After a thorough canvass of the political situation in Pennsylvania, the Democratic national committee members announced that they intend to make every effort to capture the state.

The following speakers have been assigned to make a campaign in Pennsylvania: Governor Marshall, nominee for vice president; Representative Underwood, of Alabama; Representative Henry, of Texas, and Representative Redfield, of New York; Senators Hoke Smith, of Georgia; O'Gorman, of New York; John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi; and Gore, of Oklahoma; for Governor Polk, of Missouri; Frank S. Monnett, of Columbus, O.; and Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston. Three speakers will begin their tours of Pennsylvania next week.

The committee took up the New Jersey senatorial question, in which Governor Wilson is specially interested. By mutual agreement Judge Westcott, who made the Wilson nominating speech at Baltimore, and William Hughes, who resigned from congress to stand for the senatorial nomination, will abide by the decision of the national committee and one of the other will withdraw. This will leave a single Wilson candidate in the field against former Senator James Smith.

INEBRIETY SECRETARY IN INSANITY WARD

Rev. Dr. Morrison Arrested in Gaynor's Office.

New York, Sept. 18.—Rev. Dr. William Morrison, secretary of the board of inebriety, who had a controversy recently with Mayor Gaynor over the police situation, was arrested in the mayor's office.

Rev. Morrison was removed to Bellevue hospital for observation as to his sanity. He threatened to kill himself, but accompanied the police willingly, saying that he wished to "get rid of the evil spirits."

Dr. Morrison began talking incoherently almost as soon as he entered the mayor's office. He said that he was going to walk to Belmar, N. J., and kill himself to shake off the evil spirits following him. He added that there were "a thousand reporters" in his room during the night. He also talked incoherently about "polarity."

Dr. Morrison was formerly pastor of a Brooklyn church and had been identified with police chaplain work through his friendship with Mayor Gaynor. He was appointed secretary of the board of inebriety, which has in charge the care of habitual drunkards. He was overcome by heat last year and has not been entirely normal since.

SLAYER SURRENDERS

Murderer Eludes Posses and Walks into Town.

Clearfield, Pa., Sept. 18.—Eluding the posses of deputy sheriffs and citizens who have been scouring the hills and swamps of Clearfield and Somerset counties since Sunday in search of him, John Keeler, the teamster, who murdered John W. Rosner and wounded three of his clerks in Rosner's office Saturday night, walked in to Clearfield and surrendered.

Keeler declared that he was tired of being hunted and was too hungry to stay in the woods any longer.

Half a dozen parties were hunting for him, and it was reported that he had been surrounded in a wild spot about eleven miles from Clearfield. Keeler broke through the codron of pines surrounding the wood where he was hiding, and while his pursuers were watching for some sign from him he was quietly making his way over the hills to Clearfield.

GRAFT PROBER SUES GAYNOR

Seeks to Recover $100,000 For Alleged Libel.

PROBING GUNMEN'S ARREST

It Is Said "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie" Surrendered When Police Told Them To.

New York, Sept. 18.—Mayor Gaynor was served with a summons in a $100,000 libel suit brought against him by Alderman Curran, chairman of the ad hoc committee investigating graft in the police department.

Alderman Curran alleges that the mayor made remarks derogatory to his character in connection with the investigation.

A summary of what purports to be the "$15,000 affidavit" which Police Commissioner Waldo referred to the other day before the ad hoc committee, was made public. John T. Reith is the police captain who is said to have made oath that he was offered promotion from lieutenant to captain for $15,000.

The summary of the affidavit asserts that Reith swears that he was informed by an under-sheriff that the "people having the power" to promote him wanted this sum for doing it, and that when he refused to pay it he was passed and not promoted.

This was prior to Mayor Gaynor's administration, the summary asserts. Reith was subsequently promoted to a captaincy when Waldo became commissioner and his affidavit is said to contain a statement that his promotion did not cost him a cent.

Justice Goff resumed the John Doe inquiry into the methods of the police in capturing "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie." The examination of men on Deputy Commissioner Dougherty's staff was again taken up.

The inquiry will, it is expected, sift the report that the gunmen virtually surrendered—that they had merely been advised by their guardians to give themselves up in a slightly different manner than that adopted by others now in custody for connection with the Rosenthal murder.

Assistant District Attorney Moss, in charge of the office in the absence of Mr. Whitman, was indignant over reports intimating that he had told reporters certain things about the proceedings in the John Doe investigation. He denied that he had charged the police with trying to keep from him letters they found when they arrested the gunmen.

It has come to light that "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie" went to Centre and Grant streets, opposite police headquarters, one day less than a month ago, and for several minutes argued on the street corner as to whether they should enter the building and surrender themselves.

On Tuesday and Wednesday of last week they braved 800 policemen on duty in Coney Island for the annual Mardi Gras. They were about ready to participate in the final Coney Island carnival Saturday when they were arrested. In the period of exile from their haunts on the East Side neither of the men was afraid to be seen on the streets near the house in which they lived.

So careless were the gunmen of arrest that, although they knew their wives were being trailed by detectives—and had been shadowed since July 23—neither man believed it dangerous to venture with the holiday throng in Coney Island.

They rode to the island in an automobile, revealed with the other merry-makers in the numerous amusements of the place, and drank together in some of the cabaret shows along the Bowery in Coney. They passed uniformed policemen by the hundred, and were under the eyes of scores of sleuths in plain clothes who were assigned to the island to watch for pickpockets. Despite the fact that special lists among pickpockets were on the lookout, neither "Gyp" nor "Lefty," both of whom previously had been arrested for that offense, kept out of the resort's glare until after midnight, when they returned to their homes.

RESCUE AVIATOR FROM LAKE

Chicago, Sept. 18.—A. J. Engle, of Cleveland, O., who started on a hydro plane flight from Clarendon Beach to the aviation meet in Grant park, was rescued from Lake Michigan by life savers.

He had floated helplessly for more than two hours with a disabled engine. He was picked up two miles off shore. Because of a heavy fog which hung over the lake rescuers had a difficult time locating him.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Sept. 18.—The Stewart Vehicle works of this city, employing 400 men, was completely destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of more than $150,000.

BANDITS HOLD UP TRAIN; TAKE MAIL

Get Away With Many Registered Letters.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 18.—The Memphis train on the Southern railway eastbound was held up and robbed at Stevenson, Ala.

The mail car was entered and the registered mail looted. Passengers were not molested.

Covering the mail clerks with revolvers, the two bandits bound three of them and ordered the fourth to open all the bags of registered mail. Letters supposed to contain money were dumped into a sack.

Then the fourth clerk was bound and one of the robbers pulled the emergency cord. The train stopped, and when the engineer did not get the signal to proceed he walked back and found the clerks almost suffocated under a pile of mail bags.

A sheriff's posse was organized at Huntsville and a search of the territory surrounding the place where the men got off the train was begun.

The amount of loot secured is not known, but postoffice officials fear it was considerable.

PENNSYLVANIA'S SMALLPOX

130 Cases So Far Reported on Epidemic in the State.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 18.—State Health Commissioner Dixon attributes the smallpox outbreaks at Pittsburgh and Carbonale to the failure of physicians and parents to carry out the sanitary laws of the state.

One of the sixty-one cases reported from Pittsburgh there have been sixteen deaths of children, all under the age of seven. Not one of these children was vaccinated. There are now 130 cases of smallpox in the state.

The infection in the Pittsburgh cases has not been traced. The first cases there were discovered in the crowded tenements of the Fifth ward and were two weeks old when found. A great many people had come into contact with the afflicted persons.

There are two cases in Wilkingsburg, probably due to infection from Pittsburgh.

It is believed that the Carbonale outbreak is due to a case from New York state. There, it is declared, the spread of the disease was due to the neglect of the board of health to carry out the laws. The cases were first diagnosed as chickenpox, which, contrary to law, was not considered as being worth while quarantining. Consequently the physicians of the town did not report chickenpox cases to the board of health.

Fourteen Killed in Train Wreck.

London, Sept. 18.—Fourteen persons were killed and about fifty seriously injured in an accident on the London & Southwestern railway at Ditton Junction. While going down a steep grade the engine of an express train jumped the track and hit the buttress of a bridge which spanned the road at this point. There was a terrific crash like an explosion and seven of the nine cars followed the engine.

SHORE TRAIN KILLS THREE

Two Men and Boy Run Down at Malaga, N. J.

STORM OBSCURES LIGHTS

Five Lives Lost Within Two Months at the Pennsylvania Electric Road Crossing.

Camden, N. J., Sept. 17.—Two men and a boy were killed at Malaga, twenty-eight miles south of this city, when a Pennsylvania railroad electric train struck the big moving van in which they were taking a load of furniture from Vineland, N. J., to Philadelphia.

The driver and owner of the van was Joseph Caplan. The other two victims were Jacob Caplan, aged thirteen years, and Nathan Fisher. The accident occurred during a heavy rain-storm. Two horses attached to the van were killed, and the first car of the electric train was so badly damaged that it had to be sidetracked.

The victims were badly mangled and were identified with difficulty.

The train, an express, was running at a speed of a mile a minute. Caplan and his two helpers had left Philadelphia to move the furniture of a family at Vineland. Just before they reached the Malaga crossing a heavy rain storm broke. The rain fell in torrents, obscuring the signal lights and muffling all warning signals.

The swift express loomed up upon the van before its occupants, covered with canvas to protect them from the storm, were aware of their danger. There was a terrific impact and the front of the electric train was crushed in on the left side.

Motorman Bowdwell's station was at the right. He was penned in and held a prisoner by the jamming of the door and was slightly cut by flying glass. Steadying himself from the shock, he eased down on the brakes, fearing to bring the train to too sudden a stop and thus endanger the safety of the scores of passengers in the rear coaches.

Spurting fire from the contacts formed by the wreckage of the van with the third rail, the train came to a stop half a mile from the crossing. Passengers and crew piled out in the drenching rain and aided in dragging the wreckage from the third rail to keep the coaches from catching fire. Conductor Harry Matthews discovered Bowdwell a prisoner in the motorman's room at the front of the train and released him.

A search was instituted for the victims, but it was difficult to find them in the darkness. The boy's body was the only one that was not mangled. It was found amid the wreckage of the van, that had been carried along by the train pilot. Caplan was burned by the third rail, and he and his helper, Fisher, were badly cut up under the car wheels.

The railroad officials are being criticized for allowing the bodies of the victims to lie along the tracks until morning, when Coroner Stultz was summoned to view them.

The train with its load of passengers was held up for over an hour while the wreckage was being cleared away.

A pair of buzzards, the birds of death, hovered over the fatal crossing, which had taken a toll of five lives in a period of two months this summer. The other victims, besides the three killed, were Mrs. Emma Adams and her twelve-year-old daughter, of Vineland, who died in a Camden hospital after an automobile in which they were riding was struck at the same spot by a night express. At that time Edward H. Stokes, father of former Governor Stokes, and his niece, Miss Wisam, who were also in the car, suffered injuries from which they have not yet recovered.

STRANGLES ON FALSE TEETH

Harrisburg Man Meets Death In a Peculiar Manner.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 17.—John Arnold, a weaver, twenty-six years old died at his boarding house in this city, with his nostrils plugged full of tobacco, his false teeth stuck in his throat and an empty vial of poison by the side of the bed.

Arnold was living when found and told the keeper of the house that his teeth had stuck in his throat. She tried to get them out, but the man was dying and her fingers were badly bitten when she tried to reach the plate.

Physicians said that he died from strangulation.

SAYS OYSTERS SUFFER

Though They Make No Sign When Jabbed With a Fork.

Washington, Sept. 17.—"Oysters suffer untold agony when eaten from the half-shell," says Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, late pure food expert of Uncle Sam.

"When you jab a fork into them, sprinkle them with pepper, salt and tobacco sauce, they suffer excruciating pain. They are live animals; they eat and drink and must have some feeling. The oyster undoubtedly suffers pain like any animal, only in a duller fashion."

Women Beat Highwayman.

Washington, Sept. 17.—When held up by a negro footpad, Mrs. Richard Way and Mrs. P. B. Nelson turned on the highwayman, drubbed him soundly and sent him scurrying without any booty.

Woman Shot Examining Revolver. South Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 17.—Mrs. Nelson Thompson, of this place, was accidentally shot by a bullet from a revolver in the hands of her husband, while the couple were examining the weapon.

WILLIAM D. HAYWOOD.

Labor Leader Held For Trial For Conspiracy in Boston.

HAYWOOD PLEADS

Held For Trial on Charge of Conspiracy in Lawrence Strike.

Lawrence, Mass., Sept. 17.—William D. Haywood, general organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, pleaded not guilty before Judge John F. Quinn in the superior court here to two indictments charging him with conspiracy in connection with last winter's strike in this city. He was held for trial under $1000 bonds. No date for the trial was set.

NOGI OFFERS HIS BODY TO SCIENCE

Will Directs Burial of Teeth, Hair and Nails.

Tokio, Sept. 17.—The will of General Count Maresuke Nogi, who with his wife, the Countess Nogi, committed suicide at the moment that the body of the late Emperor Mutsuhito was started on its journey to the tomb, was published here.

The Japanese warrior says that he follows the emperor because his services are no longer required in this world. He had often sought to die, he adds, and chooses as the occasion for his departure from this life the present great national calamity.

The document bears the date of the night of Sept. 12, twenty-four hours previous to the taking of his life, and it indicates that the death of the countess had not been decided upon when the instrument was prepared.

General Nogi distributes his property among his wife and friends and makes donations to several public institutions. He says that while his wife lives the house of Nogi may be maintained, but that after her death the line will be extinct.

The Port Arthur hero suggests that his body be given to a medical college, requesting that only his teeth, hair and nails be buried.

SCOUTS CURES FOR CANCER

Heidelberg Investigator Says None Is Found to Aid Humans.

Munster, Prussia, Sept. 17.—Professor Vincenz Czerny, surgeon and bacteriologist at Heidelberg university and a world famous investigator of cancer, has sent a communication to the German medical congress dealing with the latest reported cancer cures.

A specific remedy for cancer has not yet been found, he says, and possibly never will be discovered. The widely heralded chemo-therapeutic treatment by metallic salts, the professor continues, only rarely cured mice and is too dangerous as yet to apply to human beings.

Professor Czerny in conclusion deplores the negligence of the various governments in financing investigations into the disease.

Smallpox Victim Critically Ill.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 17.—The condition of Dr. E. R. Walters, director of public health, who contracted smallpox while fighting the disease in this city, is critical. Six additional cases were reported, making a total of seventy-nine since Aug. 2. Of this number, eighteen have died. More than 25,000 points of vaccine have been bought since Aug. 5 and 50,000 points are stored in local warehouses.

Plague on Ship From Argentina.

Hamburg, Germany, Sept. 17.—Two cases of the pest were discovered on a British steamer which arrived here from Rosario, Argentina. One of the cases resulted fatally and the other was removed from the vessel and placed in the hospital at the quarantine station. The vessel proceeded on her voyage.

Oklahoma Editor Shot.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 17.—Frank Merrick, managing editor of the Guthrie Leader, was lured to a sparsely settled section of Guthrie by a telephone message, shot from ambush and killed. In revenge, it is believed, for the killing of a colored man Merrick shot to death a year ago.

Aviator Hurt in 100-Foot Fall.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Victor Carlstrum, flying a biplane, plunged to earth from 100 feet in the air at the Cicero flying field. Carlstrum was knocked unconscious and his machine was wrecked. Carlstrum was just starting on his way to Grant park. A hydro-aeroplane, driven by Albert J. Engle, was wrecked at Grant park. The motor was disabled in the heavy sea.

GRAND JURY PROBING RACING

Allege Act of Assembly Was Altered After Signing.

POLITICS IS DRAGGED IN

Roosevelt Supporters in Maryland Declare It Is a Move to Discredit Their Leaders.

Belair, Md., Sept. 17.—The various charges that have been made concerning the Havre de Grace race course and the method of securing the charter from the legislature under which the track is conducted, resulted in the grand jury of Harford county beginning an investigation of the race course.

The September term of the circuit court was adjourned for the day in order that nothing should impede the investigation.

Among those summoned as witnesses are Michael H. Fahey, a member of the new racing commission and a prominent local politician; Robert M. Vandiver, son of Murray Vandiver, chairman of the Democratic state central committee; John M. Michael, president of the Race Track association and a bank president; C. C. Pusey, ex-mayor of Havre de Grace; Thomas C. Hopkins, United States sub-treasurer at Baltimore; Dr. C. W. Famous and Henry A. Gorman, Jr., all members of the last legislature, and two unnamed men from Philadelphia, supposed to be a Mr. Roberts and Timothy O'Leary.

It is alleged that the act of assembly passed last winter permitting racing in Harford county was tampered with after it had been signed by Governor Goldsborough, and it is in reference to this question that it is understood the grand jury will direct its investigation.

Apparently there had been no protests from the residents of Harford county until the matter was taken up by the Baltimore papers. It had been charged that John J. Mahon, Democratic boss of Baltimore, had some interest in the new track, and his connection with it caused the papers to center their fire upon the Havre de Grace track.

A story developed that Republican politics was involved and it was openly charged by some of the supporters of Colonel Roosevelt that the whole affair was started with a view of discrediting certain of their leaders in Harford county. It is pointed out by them that the investigation was really brought out by the governor, who was the Taft leader in Maryland last spring.

Stevenson A. Williams, leader of the Harford bar, and the Republican candidate for governor in 1905, is counsel for the Harford Breeders' association, which controls the meet now being held there. His son-in-law, R. Harry Webster, is treasurer of the association, and his son, Lewis J. Williams has recently been elected to a place on the Harford racing commission.

It is expected that the grand jury will conclude its session today. It is the general opinion that nothing can be done to close the track until the next session of the general assembly in 1914.

STEEL MILL RAISES WAGES

Pottsville Company Has More Work Than They Can Turn Out.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 17.—The Eastern Steel company announced an increase of 15 per cent in the wages of all its employees in the rolling mills.

Several hundred men will receive from $20 to $25 per month more as the result of the increase, and it was learned that the company contemplates an increase to all its 1500 employees.

The mills have more work than they can turn out, and the company is arranging to pay a bonus to certain departments for an increased output. Such property has not been known in this region since before the panic of 1907.

WORE TIGHT STOCKINGS

Girl's Legs Had to Be Amputated Because of Them.

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—A young woman patient in St. Michael's hospital has just had both of her legs amputated below the knees on account of a diseased condition due to wearing tight fitting hose.

Recently when she complained of rheumatism the physicians told her that her love of tight stockings was the cause of her complaint. The disease spread so fast that the operation was necessary to save her life. The hospital authorities have declined to give her name.

Mother of Seven Shot Dead.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Charles Nuccio was arrested after his wife, the mother of seven children, had been shot to death while she was ironing in her kitchen. The shots were fired through a window. Nuccio said he was away from home and found his wife dead when he came back. The police released him.

Man Drowned, Women Rescued.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 17.—The authorities recovered from the Genesee river, in Genesee Valley park, the body of Doris Collins, who was drowned when a canoe in which he and two young women were riding capsized. The young women were rescued.

Woman Drowned Under Upset Auto.

Toledo, O., Sept. 17.—David A. Spanner, of Cleveland, was crushed to death and Mrs. Fred M. Meier, of Indianapolis, was drowned when their automobile skidded and turned turtle into a ditch filled with water.

NICARAGUANS FIRE ON MARINES

Men From Gunboat Tacoma Shot at in Bluefields.

FEELING RUNS STRONG

No One Was Injured In Demonstration and Mob Is Dispersed Without Bloodshed.

Bluefields, Nicaragua, Sept. 17.—American sailors from the gunboat Tacoma were fired upon on the streets here during an anti-American demonstration incident to the celebration of the anniversary of Central American independence.

A mob of excited Nicaraguans was formed immediately, and for a moment bloodshed was threatened.

Prompt action by Lieutenant Lowell in command of the landing force of sixty marines undoubtedly prevented more serious results. He rushed the marines to the scene of the trouble and dispersed the mob.

The entire force of Americans patrolled the streets of the city throughout the night and prevented the assembling of natives in groups.

The sailors who were fired on by Nicaraguans were not hurt.

Quiet prevails, but it is realized that the situation remains critical. A strong anti-American feeling exists in Bluefields and in other parts of Nicaragua, and the action of the mob did not come altogether unexpectedly.

Articles denunciatory of Americans have appeared in the local papers.

College Girls Need Assistance.

Washington, Sept. 17.—American bluejackets and marines have been called upon by Minister Weitzel, in Nicaragua, to rescue from famine a college full of girls at Granada. The girls have been isolated for forty days and are facing an empty larder. The college is under French control and many of its inmates are foreign residents. The American minister appealed to Admiral Southard, of the American fleet, to send a rescue party with some of the food supplies sent by the Red Cross from the canal zone.

BAYONETS IN MEXICO CITY

Revolutionary Mobs Without Leader and City Strongly Guarded.

Mexico City, Mex., Sept. 17.—Mobs that had filled the streets of this city during the night dispersed without any clash with the thousands of soldiers placed on guard by the government.

Independence Day so far had passed without any great disorder, clearing the way for congress to convene with out any immediate prospect of conflict.

The temper of the populace, however, is such as to cause the government to continue extra precautions. The failure to start the expected revolution was attributed by many to the fact that the mobs were without a leader.

General Zapata failed to keep his promise to attack the city. The day was not without significance to President Madero. Persons in the streets wore Diaz buttons, which hawkers readily sold at 50 cents each, while Madero buttons went begging at five cents.

Although showing passiveness in their demeanor, government officials feared this apathy on the part of the mobs might suddenly give way to mob rule.

Holds Americans For Ransom.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 17.—General Inez Salazar, the Mexican rebel leader who captured the El Tigre mining camp, has demanded $100,000 ransom from the town.

At the same time he announces that he will hold three Americans as hostages until the ransom is paid. His proposed hostages are L. R. Burrow, general manager of the El Tigre mines; Assistant Superintendent Myler and H. L. Nix, general manager of the El Tigre Merchandise company.

The rebels are guarding a large amount of bullion which has been held in El Tigre because of the danger of transporting it to the refineries. This, Salazar declares, he will confiscate unless the ransom is paid. There are six American women in El Tigre and it is feared that they may be also seized. The rebels looted numerous buildings in the camp and then burned them down.

T. R. KANSAS MEN WIN IN COURT

Case of Electors Now Goes to U. S. Supreme Court.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 17.—The Kansas Progressives won a legal victory here when an opinion was handed down in the United States circuit court in the Taft-Roosevelt Kansas electoral vote controversy, providing that the order refusing an injunction in the case be affirmed, and the case be remanded to the Kansas courts, with instructions to dismiss the bill of complaint.

This case will be appealed to the supreme court of the United States. An injunction was asked by the supporters of President Taft to prohibit the names of the eight Roosevelt electors being placed on the Republican ballot in the general election in November. This was denied on Sept. 6 by Judge W. H. Sanborn, of the United States circuit court of appeals, at Topeka, Kan. The decision affirms this.

General Manager of Corporation First Witness.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Taking of testimony in the government suit to disprove the International Harvester company, a $140,000,000 corporation, was begun before Robert S. Taylor, special examiner.

Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the corporation, the first witness, said that he became general manager in 1906 and had been associated with Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the corporation, since 1904. At present, he said, he had charge of the sales department.

The defendants include George W. Perkins, Cyrus H. McCormick, Elbert H. Gary, president of the steel corporation; George F. Baker, Norman B. Ream, Charles Deering and Harold F. McCormick.

The government charges the present defendant, by combining the five largest agricultural implement manufacturers in 1902, created a trust and monopolized 85 to 90 per cent of the trade.
